INTERSHIPS AT THE ALABAMA DEPARTMENT OF ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

The Alabama Department of Archives and History (ADAH), the nation's oldest state department of archives and history, offers valuable onsite work experience and educational opportunities through its internship program. Internships at the ADAH provide undergraduate and graduate students with a meaningful and realistic work experience to complement their formal academic training. Any questions about internships can be directed to Mary Jo Scott at (334) 353-4694 or at maryjo.scott@archives.alabama.gov.

DISCOVERY INTERNSHIP

The ADAH is offering one Discovery Internship for Summer 2017. This internship is intended for undergraduate students or graduate students who have little or no experience in the cultural heritage field. Discovery interns will work 150 hours onsite divided between six program areas at the ADAH:

- Appraisal/Records Management
- Archival Collections Management
- Digital Collections Management
- Museum Collections Management
- Public Programs/Education/Communications
- Reference

Applicants must be currently enrolled and in good academic standing at an accredited college or university.

To apply for a Summer Semester Discovery Internship, an application must be completed and returned with an unofficial transcript, resume, and cover letter by March 10, 2017. All paperwork should be sent to Mary Jo Scott at the Alabama Department of Archives and History, P.O. Box 300100, Montgomery, AL, 36130, or to maryjo.scott@archives.alabama.gov.
